

Marina Victoria Pascual-Izquierdo

+86 186 2100 1531 | mpi217@nyu.edu | WeChat: marina_victoria

EDUCATION

New York University of Shanghai, Shanghai, China

- BS in Interactive Media Arts and a minor in Mandarin expected by 2020. Interactive Media Arts is a 4-year Bachelors degree focusing on digital media, design, creative programming, and production. Relevant classes: Introduction to Generative Systems, Nature of Code, VR/AR Fundamentals, Communications Lab, Interaction Lab, New Interfaces for Musical Expression, and Photography.
- GPA: 3.46

Cheshire Academy, Connecticut, United States

August 2014 – May 2016

- International private high school
- Obtained the International Baccalaureate Diploma

Maine Central Institute, Maine, United States

August 2013 – May 2014

Instituto de Education Secundaria de Cervantes, Madrid, Spain

September 2012 – June 2013

EXPERIENCE

Beyond the Bund, Shanghai, China

January 2018 – Present

Intern at an experimental art events collective. Her role is to contribute her ideas and creativity to organize and plan artistic events in the city of Shanghai. Currently working on a project combining music and art.

New York University of Shanghai, Shanghai, China

September 2017 – Present

Learning Assistant for Interaction Lab and Communications Lab. Interaction Lab is a programming and physical computing class using Processing and Arduino as the main programming languages. Communications Lab is a web development course where students learn to program in HTML5, CSS, and JavaScript. Duties include one-on-one tutoring and guiding students on their projects.

GoEco, Singburi, Thailand

July 2015

Volunteered for four weeks in a small village in Thailand teaching English to orphans and rebuilt their local orphanage.

Global Leadership Adventures, Arusha, Tanzania

July 2013

Volunteered for two weeks in a local primary school in Tanzania teaching English and mathematics to children and helped reconstruct their school.

Pueblo Inglés, Salamanca, Spain

July 2012

Volunteered as a native English speaker in a program designed for Spanish teenagers in order to improve their English speaking and writing skills.

ACTIVITIES

Dance: Danced in the Real Conservatorio Profesional de Danza Mariemma for 8 years at a professional level, an extremely competitive dance conservatory in Spain. Was selected as a student choreographer for an end-of-year performance.

Music: Got admitted into Manhattan School of Music playing the violin. Also played piano and guitar.

Photography: Attended photography classes for two years. Proficiency in most Canon digital cameras.

SKILLS

Languages: Bilingual in English and Spanish, conversational Chinese.

Software: Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office, Processing, Arduino, Three.js, HTML5, JavaScript, CSS, Audacity.